Dear Dan,

Greetings from Saint Anselm College, where our spring semester is well under way. At the halfway point of our academic year, the class of 2012 has successfully completed their first semester while the class of 2009 is preparing for commencement and the exciting journey that begins once they have received their degree from Saint Anselm College.

Your annual scholarship helps to make a Saint Anselm education possible for deserving students. These scholarship recipients are receiving financial support and encouragement during a transformative period of their lives. I am deeply grateful for the impact that you have made on our students, and what this means to them and their families.

I am pleased to report the following student was the beneficiary of your kind generosity:

CGI Employee Benefits Scholarship

Amanda O'Donnell
Derry, NH
Biochemistry 2011

Thank you again for supporting our mission to provide a strong Catholic, Benedictine liberal arts education to talented and deserving students. You have my prayers and best wishes, as well as those of my Benedictine confreres.

Sincerely,

Jonathan DeFelice, O.S.B.
