Dear Dan:

I would like to express our appreciation and thanks to CGI Employee Benefits Group for your generous sponsorship of the Matt Savage Trio Concert to benefit the Center for Life Management Foundation. The event was a tremendous success and raised more than $17,000 to help support CLM's mission to promote and advance the mental health and emotional well-being of our community.

For more than forty years the Center for Life Management has been the leading non-profit provider of behavioral health care to our region. Great strides have been made in diminishing the stigma associated with mental illness and encouraging individuals to seek the help, treatment and supportive services they need to attain well-being. In these tough economic times the need for behavioral health services continues to grow, even as more people lack the health insurance or resources to cover the cost of care. Fundraising events such as this are important in helping CLM to continue to provide essential services, expand our reach, develop new services and fully realize the potential of our mission.

Again, thank you to CGI Employee Benefits Group for joining us as a community partner dedicated to promoting mental health and making a difference in peoples' lives.

Sincerely,
